September 15th, 2016

To Whom it May Concern:

A Community Voice and Southern United Neighborhoods will host housing, jobs, health care and small business fair for residents interested in owning their own homes, home repairs, and rental property. Residents will receive information on needed social services and be able to able for available job opportunities.

This annual housing fair supports one to one credit counseling; special programs for low income families; provides annual grassroots outreach to over 300,000 families; connects residents to area businesses and services.

Please join us on Saturday October 29th from 10am to 1pm at the Allen P. August Multipurpose Center at 2001 Moeling Street in Lake Charles, LA to reach over 300 low to moderate income families who are interested in receiving information about affordable housing programs, available job opportunities, healthcare and social services available in their community.

As someone that the community needs to know about and participate in, we would very much appreciate your sponsorship of the upcoming fair. Sponsorship includes: literature and a table at our event, listing as a sponsor in all publicity, including media, flyers, and other outreach vehicles to churches, schools and PSAs.

Please fill out the attached information if you are interested in participating in our fair. Feel free to call us at 800-239-7379 or email director@southernunitedneighborhoods.org or info@acomunityvoice.com if you have additional questions or would like to meet with us about our organization. Can't wait to see you there!

Sincerely,
